Date:
Tuesday, November 12, 2019 - 12:45

Following the success of the EPOS presentations at the final day of the Madrid meeting dedicated to FAIR (Findability, Accessibility, Interoperability, Reusability) by Keith Jeffery - BGS and EPOS IT team, EPOS as an architecture and the ICS-C system, EPOS prototype TNA (Trans National Access) and the approach of EPOS to FAIR have been presented to the ENVRI community consisting of a large number of research infrastructures in environmental sciences during the ENVRIFAIR Project Meeting in Lund, Sweden on 30 October 2019.